Constitution Day Punctuation Practice

Read the fact box aloud. Then do Parts A, B and C.

Did you know?

Every year on 26 November, India celebrates Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas). Our Constitution was adopted on this day in 1949. It is like a big rule book for our country, and it says that all citizens of India are equal.

A. Rewrite with capital letters and . or ? at the end.

1. constitution day is on 26 november

2. meera and kabir made a poster

3. do you know the rules of our school

B. Put . or ? or ! in each box.

1. What a lovely poster ☐
2. Why do we need rules ☐
3. We must follow the rules ☐
4. When is Republic Day ☐
5. Hurray, we won the quiz ☐
6. Republic Day is on 26 January ☐

C. Put commas (,) in the right places.

1. Our flag has saffron white and green colours.
2. Meera Kabir and Aarav sang the national anthem.
3. The Preamble talks about justice liberty equality and fraternity.

paperworx