Constitution Day Conjunctions

Conjunctions are joining words. Read the box, then do Parts A, B and C.

26 November – Constitution Day

On 26 November 1949, India adopted its Constitution – the big book of rules for our country. Dr B. R. Ambedkar was the chairman of the Drafting Committee. Every year we celebrate this day as Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas).

A. Fill in the blanks with the right joining word.

Joining words: and | but | or | so | because

1. We celebrate 26 November _____ our Constitution was adopted on this day.
2. Dr B. R. Ambedkar _____ his team worked hard on the Constitution.
3. All citizens of India are equal, _____ we must treat everyone fairly.
4. Meera wanted to read the Preamble aloud, _____ she had a sore throat.
5. Would you like to make a poster _____ write a poem?

B. Join the two sentences using the word in brackets.

1. The school held a Constitution Day quiz. Priya won the first prize. (and)

_____

2. Kabir was very tired. He finished his poster. (but)

_____

3. We read the Preamble aloud. It was Constitution Day. (because)

_____

C. Match the words from the Preamble with their meanings.

Justice	●	● everyone is treated the same
Liberty	●	● a feeling that we are all one family
Equality	●	● freedom to think, speak and believe
Fraternity	●	● being fair to every person

